ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH, San Jose, California. Established under authority of Charles IV, King of Spain, on July 12, 1803, the original adobe was damaged by earthquakes and succeeding structure destroyed by fire. The present impressive cathedral of Roman-Corinthian architecture was dedicated April 22, 1877.

C6370

NATURAL COLOR by Mike Roberts
BERKELEY 2, CALIF.

—Distributed by Milligan News Company, Inc., San Jose, Calif.—